e/2

Hidden potential and Talent needs to be recognized and to be given a chance of expression. On this thought in mind SPARC came up with SATRANG, a cultural and literary fest held annually in the college premises.

SATRANG has events which are as follows:

- Asakari - the skit and mono acting competition
- Dhanak - the classical and folk dance competition
- Se, the poets - the self composed poetry competition
- Sakros - the painting, sketch and collage competition
- Sikhar var - the debate and JAM competition
- Sou - Sangat - the singing competition
- Saigara - the Quiz competition

The cultural and literary fest is managed and conducted by the SPARC student committee with co-ordination and guidance provided by Dr. Sajiullah Ansari, Prof. Ahmad Bader, and Prof. S.M. Yahiya Ibrahim, convenor of SPARC and with special care and co-operation from Dr. Anwar Sahab and Dr. Mrs. Neha Tiwari.

NIFT, (Ranchi)

For the last two consecutive years our college has been participating in JINKS which is an all India event organized by NIFT (National Institute of Foundry and Forge Technology), Ranchi. Our students were given the golden opportunity to show their talent outside the campus in this all India level competition.

Overall, 42 students participated in different cultural events of JINKS this year. With hard work, creativity, dedication and passion we won 14 prizes in the events like singing, dancing, Antakshari and many more.

The 3 day stay at NIFT is marked by tough competition, enjoyment and learning. Students participated with a zeal to win and to bring laurels for the college.

The team was logistically supported by Syed Sajid Perwaiz and his camera crew.
