MESSAGE

An Educational Institution is not only a seat of academics but also a cradle to nurture the student into a full grown individual. This Philosophy is a belief, a faith and a practice at Karim City College. I am happy that the NSS wing of our college has been engaging our students towards the building of a sane society and a capable nation. We believe that Institutional Social Responsibility (ISR) can prove a big role player in turning our students into a responsible and responsive citizen. The present annual report of the activities of our NSS unit reflects our commitment towards the society and the nation.

One of the highlights of the event was the establishment of an 'Amrit Kalash' (Holy Pot) symbolizing the sacred connection between the soil and the country. In a symbolic gesture, those present and NSS volunteers, contributed soil and rice grains from their respective regions to fill the 'Amrit Kalash'. Dr. Muhammad Rezaq, the Principal of Karim City College, observed, "Soil is life-giving and the Amrit Kalash represents the true essence of 'Amrit (nectar)." Dr. Dara Singh Gupta highlighted the 'Meri Mati, Mera Desh' campaign, that was being organized by NSS units in various colleges across the country. He commended the NSS unit of Karim City College for its participation and encouraged NSS volunteers to actively engage in such initiatives. The concluding event witnessed participants embarking on a journey with the Amrit Kalash, symbolizing their connection to the soil and their nation, inspiring everyone to cherish the pride of the homeland and its essence (rw/ash).

KCC and NSS join 'Meri Mati, Mera Desh' Campaign

Mail News Service

Jamshedpur, Oct 9: In accordance with the directives of the Central Government's Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Karim City College (KCC), under Kolhan University, organized 'Meri Mati, Mera Desh' program on Monday, October 9. This event was conducted by the National Service Scheme (NSS) under the aegis of Kolhan University.

The programme witnessed the presence of, among others, Dr Dara Singh Gupta, the coordinator of the National Service Scheme at Kolhan University, Dr Mohammad Reyaz, the Principal of Karim City College, Dr Ale Ali, Program Officer of National Service Scheme at Karim City College, Syed Sajid Parvez, NSS Coordinator, and numerous NSS volunteers.

One of the highlights of the event was the establishment of an 'Amrit Kalash' (Holy Pot) symbolizing the sacred connection between the soil and the country. In a symbolic gesture, those present and NSS volunteers contributed soil and rice grains from their respective regions to fill the Amrit Kalash. Dr Mohammad Reyaz, the Principal of Karim City College, observed, "Soil is life-giving and the Amrit Kalash represents the true essence of 'Amrit' (nectar)." Dr Dara Singh Gupta highlighted the 'Meri Mati, Mera Desh' campaign, that was being organized by NSS units in various colleges across the country. He commended the NSS unit of Karim City College for its participation and encouraged NSS volunteers to actively engage in such initiatives. The concluding event witnessed participants embarking on a journey with the Amrit Kalash, symbolizing their connection to the soil and their nation, inspiring everyone to cherish the pride of the homeland and its essence.
