KAHANI ZUBANI

*SPArC* announces its annual story telling event *'Kahani Zubani'* in Hindi and Urdu. We bring this event for our budding student-writers to showcase their talents. This will prove to be a great opportunity for them, as they will get to present their self composed stories in front of a sensible, encouraging and supportive audience. Stories are being created everyday, but hardly any of them are narrated. Hence, we whole heartedly invite our students to explore their inner creative urge and participate in this event. Interested participants are notified to directly mail their stories alongwith their class details and contact number at the email id of SPArC : sparckcconline@gmail.com . Entries will be accepted until *24th May 2023*. The stories will be shortlisted and the selected participants will be informed through their mobile numbers to present their stories on 27th May 2023.

WORLD POETRY DAY

Poetry can change the way people view the world, inspire others, and mend the bonds between people and create harmony with one another.

However, poetry to many can be considered a dying art in a world filled with technology and more advanced ways of conveying messages of art and beauty.

World Poetry Day aims to appreciate the sentiment that poetry can create, forming meaningful relationships and expand one's mind about history and cultures.

WORLD POETRY DAY

Poetry can change the way people view the world, inspire others, and mend the bonds between people and create harmony with one another.

World Poetry Day aims to appreciate the sentiment that poetry can create, forming meaningful relationships and expand one's mind about history and cultures.
