Departmental Profile

- ▶ The Department was established in 1961.
- ▶ The Department offers undergraduate programme. The objectives of the Department are:
 - ▶ To impart theoretical and empirical understanding of the subject to its students.
 - ▶ To help students to develop the ability to observe and analyse society in a better disciplined manner.
 - ▶ To promote research endeavours of the faculty for better understanding of issues of political, historical, geographical, linguistic, and economic significance in India.
 - ▶ To provide students a unique blend from different human complexities- cultural, political, and economic thereby gaining deeper understanding to be able to meet the world's challenges.

Vision

- ▶ The History Department aims to make students aware of the past and instill positivism and values in them. Only a critical understanding of the past will enable the students to understand the present and help them look towards the future.
- ▶ The Department seeks to educate students so that they have a good perspective on the past and can confidently handle difficulties in the present and future.
- ▶ The Department works to support students' learning so they can become informed, engaged, and thoughtful citizens.

Mission

- ▶ The Department aims to promote intellectual learning and serve in a friendly, welcoming environment for the healthy exchange of ideas.
- ▶ Encourage students to actively engage with the past, not as passive spectators but as participants, through field trips and seminars.
- ▶ Transform students into critical thinkers about the past and its implications for the present.
- ▶ Prepare students for a wide range of career opportunities by teaching a core set of transferable skills through the study of past in a historical and geographical context.
